

Love Has Come, Inc completed its third fiscal year December, 2013. LHC was blessed in 2013 with continued public support and the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of many children. This was, and remains, only possible by God's continued provision and the support of people like you. From the LHC board of directors who have worked tirelessly on behalf of orphaned children and forever families, thank you from the bottom of our heart for locking arms and joining our team.

Financial accountability is important to us. It's so important, in fact, we applied for acceptance into the ECFA (Evangelical Counsel for Financial Accountability) on our first year of eligibility. The ECFA is essentially the gold standard for faith based accounting practices; membership means you voluntarily subject yourself to an annual audit to ensure the books are clean. Thanks to the good work of our Treasurer Mike Kauffman, our book keeper, and the counsel of the board, we were accepted into the ECFA. This means you, as a donor, should have confidence that your dollars are being well used for the purpose of our mission. To learn more about the ECFA, go to LoveHasCome.com and click on the ECFA seal.

LHC is looking forward to heading to Haiti in April. We have had a heart for Haiti for about three years and the devastation and the opportunities to serve are overwhelming. Though help is needed everywhere, we are learning what it means to help in sustainable ways. Our desire is to empower and equip our Haitian friends spiritually, physically, socially, and economically. Our first attempt ran into complications surrounding some of these core values and we needed to step away. Though it was a hard decision, we have been led to a project in southwest Haiti that appears to align perfectly with our core values and may be a better fit. Please keep this opportunity in mind and prayer as LHC does our best to help wisely and with the most impact. Keep glued to our web site and Facebook page for updated info.

And, of course, we've been involved in all kinds of things like our annual fundraising banquet, the marathon fundraiser, and our Get Loud community concert that brings awareness to the plight of the orphan. LHC also invested in our development by sending a few of us to Nashville, Tennessee for the largest orphan-minded workshop in the country – the Christian Alliance for Orphans Summit 9. While there we were educated, equipped, and inspired to work with wisdom and diligence.

Thank you for your support. Because of you, we were able to provide many adoption grants to faith-based families in 2013. Because of you, forever families were connected to their forever children. And that's incredible. Love is incredible. Love is good – everyone needs to feel it and be safe in it. That's what we are working to do – bring love to family-less children locally and around the world. That's our bottom line – we are pursuing the children who have no options to bring them love; sustainable love provided only through a family.

May God bless your faith and support.

From your LHC team – thank you.
